Dear Mr. Helle and members of the Northport Historical Society:

Please find enclosed the Grant Agreement between the Washington Trust for Historic Preservation and the Northport Historical Society. This agreement outlines the terms of the grant funds awarded to the Museum & Historical Society through the Valerie Sivinski Washington Preserves Fund. In addition to the Grant Agreement, included are a scope of work and a project budget.

At your earliest convenience, please sign, date and return the attached Grant Agreement to the Trust office. If any revisions need to be made, please notify me so that we can discuss any changes to the agreement (my contact information is below). Please remember that all work completed must comply with the Secretary of the Interior's Standards for the Rehabilitation of Historic Properties. The Washington Trust reserves the right to review architectural and design documents to ensure compliance with these standards.

We look forward to following your progress and assisting as we can. Please consider this letter confirmation that grant funds through our Valerie Sivinski Washington Preserves program are committed to this project.

Sincerely,
